THE WORLD OF PRIVILEGE

Three generations of men with passion for the wood, tradition and culture of perfection: that is why the chalets signed "Grosset-Janin" are among the most beautiful, with their perfect lines, authenticity, discretion and respect for the surrounding nature.

Group Grosset-Janin are guardians of tradition, but anchored in today's issues and innovations, whether technological or environmental. This is a socially responsible modern enterprise, with sound environmental policy.

The traditional system construction is based on the structure of posts and beams from solid wood, which is key to the incomparable charm of the chalets Grosset-Janin: opening up the interior space, thus allowing the extraordinary possibilities for creative expression, unique constructions, perfect reflections of your dreams. The warmth of woods and the majesty of light-filled open spaces create comfort and the feeling of wellbeing. Of course, the style is the choice of the owner. Whether traditional or contemporary, the decorator will respond to any taste, accept any challenge, pay attention to any detail, whether made of wood, stone, metal or glass.

This freedom of choice is certainly the biggest privilege that the chalets Grosset-Janin can offer you. To make your dreams possible, the group Grosset-Janin is equipped to give you all the necessary technical and human resources, personalized to your specific needs, from the selection of a perfect spot where to build your dream house, to the turn-key delivery, to the interior decoration with custom-built furniture, kitchens, decorative objects and anything else that will bring you closer to the attainment of your dreams.
